December Newsletter

Thank you to everyone that attended, worked & participated in the 2nd Plastic Bat & Ball Tourney. Over $4500 was raised for the Loreburn Town & Country Centre!

The Jam Night Fire Department fundraiser was November 4th at Town & Country. Though attendance was lower than last year, we still thank those that attended and saw the wonderful performances by Verna and Dawnie Urliacher and Gilbert Bourassa.

Town & Country Coffeetimes are:
Mon – Wed - Fri at 3 pm and Mon & Thurs at 2 pm. All welcome!

NAME THE CENTRE CONTEST!
Entries accepted at the Village Office and Town & Country.

The Loreburn RV Campground was mostly full this year and we thank all those that booked and stayed! We hope it was up to your expectations!
Details for the RV Park tab of the Loreburn website!

The Loreburn Library regular hours are: Tues, Wed and Thursdays 3-6:30 pm.

Visit our website at www.villageofloreburn.ca for the calendar of events in the area.

Loreburn Senior 19ers play Friday, December 29th at 8 pm

Next pancake breakfast is Jan.20 9 am – 11 am

First responders are needed for our area. If you are considering this at all, please contact Verna Urliacher or Heartland Health Region.

The Transfer Station is NOT open for regular hours. If you wish to take burnable lumber, please pick up the key from the office. All other materials must be placed in the 40 yard waste bin beside the Fire Hall. $10/item or $40/truck load – hours Saturdays 9 am to 12 pm.

To honor those who have been buried at the Loreburn Cemetery and for ancestry searching purposes, our website has been updated (click on the Cemetery Tab) with a list of those who are buried here. Linked to each name is the picture of the gravestone marker, if available.

Historical meeting minutes are being archived. If you wish to view these, come to the office.

Many thanks to Viviane Ouelette, Delores Rioch, Emily Casey, Alvin Ethier and Craig Brown for their caretaking of the Town & Country,
